

THE BELLE MEADE SALE

THE GREATEST SALE OF HORSES EVER HELD IN AMERICA.

Mr. R. F. Maddox, Jr., Teller of the Prices Brought and of the Selling Incidents Which Took Place.

The greatest sale of thoroughbred horses ever known in America was held recently at the Belle Meade stock farm, near Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. R. F. Maddox, Jr., was at the sale, and when he returned to Atlanta yesterday, he gave an interesting description of what took place.

"Belle Meade, the famous thoroughbred stock farm," he said, "lies in the blue grass region of Tennessee, just six miles west of Nashville. This is probably the largest estate in that section, having 5,000 acres, about equally divided between Judge H. E. Jackson and General W. H. Jackson, the present owners."

"Are there many horses on the farm?"

"On the place there are one hundred brood mares, with celebrated stallions. Here some of the most famous celebrities: Bonny Scotland, Pizam, Jack Malone, Vandal and Glen Coe have lived, and today Troquois, Inquirer, Great Tom, Bramble and Luke Blackburn grace the meadows. In addition to the thoroughbreds are the Vermont and New Hampshire morgan, the Shetland ponies, Cashmere goats, flocks of Southdown sheep and herds of Jersey cattle. In a park of five hundred acres there are from two hundred to three hundred deer nearly as wild as in their native woodland."

"These sales are annual, are they not?"

"In 1867 the first sale of thoroughbred yearlings was held and the merit of the stock at each succeeding annual sale has won for the place a world-wide reputation. So, when the twenty-third annual sale was advertised, announcing that together with the yearlings the brood mares and stallions would be sold, every horseman in America was interested."

"And many, were they?"

"Oh, yes. Early Thursday morning, April 28th, visitors in carriages, buggies, and vehicles of all kinds were streaming out the beautiful Harding pike; at 10:30 the special train from Nashville with five coaches crowded to the platform, arrived with breeders, turfmen, jockeys, and other attendants from all over the United States."

"The crowd soon filled the pavilion which had been erected for the sale, and when Captain Kidd, of New York, the auctioneer, called to order the several hundred people within the sound of his voice, he addressed the most notable crowd of horsemen ever assembled, notable not only in point of numbers, but in the class of the visitors. The sale came first in the catalogue and from the moment the handsome brother of Egmont was introduced until the last yearling had been sold the bidding was stubborn and spirited. The children of the beautiful young stallion Troquois seemed to claim the highest bidding, and while Enquirer's get brought round sums, yet the star of the collection was a daughter of Luke Blackburn by Touch-me-not, bringing $3,000. And, we may well expect that from out the ring there were led many future winners. The sixty-one yearlings brought $4,393, at an average of $72.65."

"The next in the catalogue came the brood mares, among which were many old matrons who had given to the turf its most famous sires. General Jackson was in the bidding for the mares, and many of the old mothers were returned to the Belle Meade nursery. The sale of the ninety-eight mares amounted to $77,300, at an average of $788.65."

"For a moment after the last mare had fallen under the hammer, there was a pause, comment and conjecture by the audience, for next in the catalogue came the world-renowned stallions, who were perhaps the fastest in their day as record-breakers, and, by their get, certainly the most valuable lot of thoroughbred studs ever collected on a breeding farm in America."

"Was there much enthusiasm?"

"Excitement was at its highest pitch. When old Bob, the colored servant nearly seventy years old, who was born on the place and who is so widely known, proudly led his favorite, Luke Blackburn, into the ring. The applause was deafening, after which Captain Kidd arose and said: 'You have before you, gentlemen, a horse that is known and admired from Maine to California. He is the sire of Proctor Knott, and by many of the wisest turfmen and breeders is regarded as the greatest horse in America, for he certainly is the most beautiful and even breeder. You have come from the east and from the west. I see among you faces tanned by the breezes of the Atlantic and bronzed by the sun of California, you have come to witness and participate in the sale of this immortal stallion. How much am I bid to start him?'

"For a moment there was quiet, which, however, was soon broken by Mr. Ed Applegate, of Louisville, who sang out $5,000! Every eye was turned to the bidder, and then to General Jackson, who no sooner heard the $5,000 than he made it $6,000. Mr. Applegate was being urged to put up the $7,000 when Mr. Van Kirkman, of Nashville, who was bidding for Reuben Payne, of Knoxville, said: 'I will give $10,000.' There was then animated bidding, which continued until the figure $20,000 was reached, at which price being knocked down to his former owner, handsome Luke was returned to his paddock amid enthusiastic cheers, calling for General Jackson, who, in graceful acknowledgment, said:

"I do not know which affords me the greatest pleasure, the ownership of that noble animal or the good will you extend to me. I have labored twenty years to build up this stud, and nothing is more grateful to a man than to know that his efforts are appreciated by his friends."

"It was evident after this that the general intended to have the sale of the stallions all his own way, and there was not quite the same uneasiness for fear that Troquois, the next for sale, would likely leave Belle Meade."

"This animal, judging by his performances, was one of the best race horses ever bred in the United States, and the only horse that had ever won the Derby, prince of Wales stakes at Ascot and Doncaster St. Ledger. He was purchased four years ago at $20,000 from the Lord and Lady of the Belle Meade stud. He was led into the ring amid a burst of applause, and it was several minutes before the auctioneer could hear a starting bid. When presently Mr. William Eaton, of New York, offered $15,000 for the famous son of Lexington. Then the bidding waged thick and fast, rapidly rising at one thousand dollars each bid, until twenty-six thousand dollars had been reached; leaving only General Jackson and Mr. George Wheeler, the book-maker, who, it was understood, was representing 'Lucky' Baldwin, of the Santa Anita stables, of California. Twenty-seven thousand dollars was asked by the winner. Wheeler nodded. 'Twenty-eight,' quickly replied the general, who sat cool and calm, smoking his Havana, ready to bid down any adversary. Thirty-two thousand was soon reached. Wheeler hesitated. 'Twenty-nine' against the world, 'impressively said Captain Kidd. The local interest at this point was very high."

"Give me thirty-three thousand dollars," cried the auctioneer.

"The book-maker turned and said, 'Yes.' Quickly General Jackson said 'Thirty four,' and the fight was won. Wheeler was out. Again enthusiasm went wild, and Uncle Bob joyfully welcomed back the princely horse. There was no more bidding, as it was clearly shown that none of the bidders would be led away from Belle Meade, and great Tom Bramble and Inquirer were only brought into the ring to receive the admiration and praises of the crowd.

Thus the greatest sale of thoroughbred stock ever held in the state of Tennessee was at a close. Sixty-six thousand four hundred and ninety dollars had been brought by the yearlings, $77,300 by the brood mares, $56,500 by the stallions, in all $200,290, the most valuable sale ever held in America.

FIRST GEORGIA REGULARS.

A Reunion of the Members on Memorial Day—A General Reunion to be Held.

There is a movement afoot for a reunion of the old First Regiment of Georgia regulars. Last Saturday, during the gathering of veterans from all over the state, there was a pleasant meeting of quite a number of the members of the First Georgia regulars.

At that meeting, called together by Thomas Lyford, temporary chairman, the veterans spent a season in talking over old times and discussing the project for a general reunion.

Colonel Joe A. Blance was made permanent chairman of the reunion, and Captain J. R. Anthony secretary.

All the surviving members of the First Georgia regulars are urged to furnish Secretary Anthony with their addresses, together with the rank they held and the company to which they belonged.

From this information a roster of the regiment will be made up, which will greatly facilitate arrangements for the general reunion. As soon as arrangements are inaugurated toward the general reunion of the regiment, steps will be taken for a reunion of General "Tige" Anderson's brigade.

The First Georgia Regulars was the nucleus of the confederate army. The history goes back previous to the declaration of war, when it was organized by order of the confederate provisional congress. The officers were largely resigned United States army officers, and the men the pick of the state.

During the war the regiment made a valiant record, taking conspicuous part in the campaigns of the peninsula, seven days at Richmond, the operations of the Gulf and second Manassas, under General Tige Anderson.

At Thoroughfare Gap the regiment covered itself with glory by its heroic fighting in that impregnable stronghold, and probably doing more to save Lee's army from destruction than any other branch of the army.

THE BROSIUS COMPANY.

A Statement Showing the Financial Status of the Company.

On the 26th of April a report was made by the officers of the Brosius Motor Sewing Machine company.

It was intended for private use, but may be of some public interest.

"The assets of the Brosius Motor Sewing Machine company, of Atlanta, Ga., consist of: '1. An equipped plant, three acres with 800 feet front on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, a three-story brick factory forty feet wide and 150 feet long, brick foundry, rumbling room, boiler house, and blacksmith shop, with machinery, etc., worth $90,000."

"2. Outside real estate worth $40,000."

"3. Stock in the Brosius Manufacturing company, of New York, for which trustees certificates are held, and which is to be delivered when the pool is broken, par value, $1,500,000."

"4. Cash on hand and available on call of the directors, $45,000."

"5. Treasury stock, par value, $90,000."

"Liabilities—None, except capital stock, $500,000."

"Territory Atlanta company—District of Columbia, Maryland, and thirteen southern states."

"Territory of New York company—Balance of United States."

(Signed.) "T. J. JAMES, President."

"J. B. ZACHREY, Secretary and Treasurer."

MR. W. P. PATILLO'S OFFER.

To be One of One Hundred Men to Give $5,000 Each to the University.

The first response to the suggestion that Emory's endowment be duplicated for the State University comes from Mr. W. P. Patillo. It will be remembered that he is a graduate of Emory college.

"I will be one of one hundred," said he yesterday, "to give $5,000 each to the State University. That will make it self-supporting, as it ought to be. Georgia owes that much to the university."

Mr. Patillo means what he says. Will the alumni of Athens refuse a challenge like that?

A CHI PHI BANQUET.

A Meeting of the Fraternity Called for This Afternoon.

The Chi Phi's of Atlanta are requested to meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, corner of Pryor and Wheat streets.

There are sixty or seventy-five Chi Phi's in Atlanta, and a rousing big attendance is expected.

The purpose of the call is to arrange for a fraternity reunion and banquet at the Kimball. Rev. Dr. Lee and other prominent Chi Phi's here are enthusiastic in the work, and they promise that the banquet is to be a credit to the fraternity and to Atlanta.

Woman's Diseases.

Are of such a character they cannot be discussed or treated as are complaints common to all mankind. Hence thousands of females become afflicted and remain so, suffering untold miseries from a sense of delicacy they can not overcome, yea, even sink into untimely graves before they will let anyone know they are suffering. For all such Bradford's Female Regulator, by stimulating and arousing to healthy action all those organs act as an absolute specific, and soon causes the frame to fill out, the roses of health to bloom on the cheek, and joy to reign throughout the entire frame. Write The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga. Sold by all druggists.

At 4 O'Clock This Afternoon.

I will sell, upon the premises, to the highest bidder, that magnificent piece of property, the Atlanta Female Institute. Be on hand.

Domestic Wines.

Mr. B. F. Jordan, of Culloden, Ga., is in the city. He is noted for the wines he makes. He has a choice lot of pure superlative and red wines. They are absolutely pure and have no superior anywhere. His prices are as follows: Twelve quart cases, $6.00. In gallon lots, $1.50. By the barrel, $1.25 per gallon. Get some of this wine and you will be pleased.

The Blues.

This is a synonym for that gloomy, harassed condition of the mind which has its origin in dyspepsia. All the ugly spirits that, under the name of the "blues," "blue devils," "neurons," and "malignants" torment the dyspeptic almost ceaselessly, banish when attacked with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that, moreover, annihilates biliousness, constipation, chills and fever, kidney complaints and nervousness.

The Atlanta Female Institute.

108 feet front on Peachtree by 250 feet deep, with elegant building, at auction today at 4 p. m. sharp.

Take your sweetheart to Donohoe's Ice Cream parlor, she will appreciate it.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A YOUNG LADY LOST HER LIFE YESTERDAY.

Her Clothes Catch Fire from the Stove at Which She Was Cooking and She is Horribly Burned.

Miss Fannie Walker was burned to death at her residence, No. 115 East Fair street, yesterday afternoon.

She is a young lady about seventeen years old, and resides with her mother, a widow lady, who is employed at Simon & Frohman's.

Yesterday, about two o'clock, Miss Fannie was cooking dinner on an oil stove in a room in the second story of her residence, and in some way walked too near the stove, and her dress caught fire.

Frankie with fright, she rushed down stairs, the flames flashing all over her body as she ran. She reached the residence of Mr. John Corrigan, next door, and fell exhausted on the front porch.

Her screams attracted the attention of the neighborhood, and an alarm of fire was sent in from box thirty-six, corner Washington and Fair streets, and the department responded.

By the time Chief Joyner arrived on the scene, the neighbors had smothered the flame with a blanket, but her clothing was still on fire, and he quickly removed the burning garments and assisted in getting her inside the house.

The condition of the poor girl was frightful beyond description. She had rolled on the grass in the back yard, in attempting to extinguish the flames, until her clothing was almost consumed, before she reached Mr. Corrigan's residence. Her shrieks, that reached her burning body to the tender flesh when Chief Joyner and others removed them.

There was hardly a spot of sound flesh on her limbs and body, and her chest was burned perfectly brown. She had kept her hands over her face so that it was not burned, but her hair was scorched and singed by the flames.

As soon as she was placed on the lounge she asked Dr. Noble, who was the first physician to arrive, what he thought of her condition, and when he told her that he feared there was very little hope for her, she asked for somebody to pray for her, and mentioned Dr. Barnett. Somebody present said that Dr. Barnett was some distance away, and then Dr. Strickler was spoken of, and she assented. Chief Joyner got in his buggy and drove over to Dr. Strickler's residence and carried him to where the girl lay moaning in agony.

The scene was a touching one as the good minister knelt by her side and offered up a fervent petition in her behalf, while sobs and tears came from those present.

Chief Joyner went to the room where the burning occurred, and in his opinion, from the appearance of the room, she had attempted to fill the lamp of the oil stove while it was lighted, as an oil can was lying on the floor some distance from the stove, and oil was scattered over the floor.

Mrs. Walker was notified of the terrible accident, and her grief was heartrending. Drs. Armstrong and O'Brien were afterwards summoned, and the young lady was given every attention.

Her body was so badly burned, however, that death was believed to be inevitable. Miss Walker is a most lovable young lady, and her sad misfortune is sincerely deplored by a large circle of friends.

The neighbors came to her relief and did all that could possibly be done to soothe and comfort her.

All that medical skill and the tender ministrations of loving hands could do were done, but without avail. She lingered in the most excruciating agony until 10:45 o'clock last night, and then her gentle spirit took its flight and her sufferings were ended.

Mrs. Walker is heartbroken over the terrible death of her daughter, and in her grief she has the sympathies of all who are acquainted with the sad facts of the tragedy.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.

Good-Size Purses Added to the Prizes Offered by the Piedmont Exposition Company.

The list of special premiums to be awarded by the Piedmont Exposition is rapidly growing.

Mr. Lewis A. Mueller, proprietor of the Dresden china store, yesterday made the following offer:

For the best and largest display, in merit and variety, in decorated china, by any one amateur lady artist of the state of Georgia. First premium—One fine decorated china tea set of fifty-six pieces, worth $20. Second premium—One fine parlor lamp, worth $20.

The list of special premiums now stands:

Chamberlain & Johnson.....$400

Louis A. Mueller.....$200

Besides these several Atlanta merchants have signified their intentions of offering special prizes.

We commend the public spirit of our citizens in offering special premiums besides the premiums of the company, but it will also give our talented ladies the opportunity to show the results of their industry, which in ordinary life is often too much under-estimated, and encourage them to greater efforts.

A lady said she had hard work to get her druggist to keep Dr. Bull's Worm Destroyer, as he was anxious to sell another kind. But she made him get that for her. Go mother and do likewise.

Attention, Everybody.

Attend the sale of Ballard property, on Peachtree street, today at 4 p. m.

H. B. ELSTON,

No. 3 East Alabama Street

East Georgia.

No Malaria! No Mosquitoes! No Saloons!

BEST LOCATION FOR SUMMER HOMES, PERMANENT HOMES

AND FOR BUSINESS.

MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES ESTABLISHED.

Four wood-working factories are now building. Many other industries are being arranged for, and will soon be built. Splendid water power, all to be utilized in driving machinery. Fine iron ore in abundance. Plenty of hard-wood timber available for manufacture.

HOMES AND PLEASURE.

Fine mountain scenery; beautiful wooded drives; no mantic winding streams; foaming cascades; clear, cool springs; attractive building sites; cool, pleasant summers. Just the place for Summer Homes, Winter Homes and All-the-Year-Round Homes.

HEALTH.

Statistics have proven the county in which DEMOREST is located to have the lowest death-rate of ANY IN THE ENTIRE NATION. There may be many healthy locations. THERE CAN BE ONLY ONE HEALTHIEST.

RAPID DEVELOPMENT.

One has but to visit DEMOREST to be convinced of the certainty of its prosperous future. Started only a few months ago with no population or improvements, the evidences of steady and sure growth are daily multiplying. Having a full city government. It is sure of good order. Saloons, gambling and prostitution are forever excluded by clause in deeds. These features are attracting the best of citizens.

AN EXCELLENT SCHOOL, conducted by experienced teachers, is open all the year.

For pamphlets and stock are steadily advancing. Parties wanting the best investment should buy NOW. For pamphlets and particulars, address

THE DEMOREST HOME, MINING AND IMPROVEMENT CO.

DEMOREST, HABERSHAM COUNTY, GEORGIA.

Or address or call

ATLANTA OFFICE: 62 SOUTH BROAD STREET

Chicago Office: 111 La Salle Street, Room 33.

2022-211 on 64 pg.

3635-224 by

10 MARIETTA ST.

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

THE ARNOLDS SENTENCED.

Colonel Rube Arnold to Pay $206 and His Brother and Son $50 Each.

Judge Richard H. Clark yesterday passed sentence upon Colonel Rube Arnold, Frank A. Arnold and Rube Arnold, Jr.

Colonel Rube Arnold came out first best. He was sentenced to pay a two hundred dollar fine.

His brother, Frank Arnold and Rube Arnold, Jr., will each pay $50 for the part they took in the difficulty with John L. Conley.

The costs of the case are to be divided equally among the three defendants.

The Messrs. Arnold, it will be remembered, were found guilty of assault and battery at the beginning of the present term of the superior court.

John L. Conley was the party assaulted.

The indictments upon which they were tried charged the Messrs. Arnold with assault to murder, but the jury found them guilty of simply assault and battery.

At its inception the case was quite sensational, growing out of charges preferred against Colonel Arnold by Mr. Conley before the Bar association.

THE CONSTITUTION has given the details of the case all the way through, and the public is familiar with it throughout.

THE WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast for Georgia.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Indications for tomorrow: Fair; stationary temperature; southerly winds.

SIGNAL SERVICE, U. S. A.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 30.

All observations taken at the same moment of actual time at each place.

Observations taken at 8 p. m., seventy-fifth meridian time, at each place.

STATIONS.	Barom.	Therm.	Wind.	Relat.	Weather.
Meridian.....	29.95	72.56	S	Light	.00 Cloudless
Pensacola.....	29.98	72.58	SW	8	.00 Cloudless
Mobile.....	29.99	72.52	SW	8	.00 Cloudless
Montgomery.....	29.96	70.44	W	Light	.00 Cloudless
New Orleans.....	29.98	74.48	SW	Light	.00 Cloudless
Galveston.....	29.99	72.60	S	10	.00 Cloudless
Palestine.....	29.98	74.54	S	Light	.00 Cloudless
Corpus Christi.....	29.94	74.58	SE	16	.00 Cloudless
Brownsville.....	29.94	76.70	E	12	.00 Cloudless
Rio Grande City.....	29.92	84.70	SE	6	.00 Cloudless

LOCAL OBSERVATIONS.

(Local Time.)

Time of Observation.

7 a. m.....30.04 58.41 NW 3 .00 Cloudless

7 p. m.....29.94 48.36 Calm .00 Cloudless

Maximum Thermometer.....80

Minimum Thermometer.....65

Total Rainfall......00

JOHN FITZGERALD, Observer.

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

3635-224 by

A DAY OF WEDDINGS.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS WORN ALL THROUGH THE STATE.

Appleton-Branham in Atlanta—Inman-Holt in Macon—Chapman-Peck in Cedar-town—Weddings Elsewhere.

A brilliant gathering of society people met at St. Luke's cathedral last night to witness the marriage of Miss Jessica Cuyler Branham, of Rome, with Mr. D. S. Appleton, Jr., of New York. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the groom, the wedding was a rather quiet affair, and the church was entirely without decoration. Before the arrival of the wedding party Mr. Blumenfeld played in his exquisite manner the nocturne of Chopin—Sara-Sale, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Richards, who presided at the organ.

The organ pealed forth the first strains of Mendelssohn as the bride party entered. First came the bridesmaids, Dr. Ridley and Judge Thompson, then Mr. Peck and Mr. Henry Inman, Mr. R. F. Maddox, Jr., and Mr. Charles Harman. The bride entered on the arm of her father, and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Harry Appleton.

Seldom, if ever, has the striking blonde beauty of the bride been so great an advantage. She wore an exquisite gown of ivory tulle, elaborately trimmed in round point lace of priceless value. The low bell and half sleeves were finished in soft folds of crepe and lace, and the long train gave an added dignity to her slender figure. Her ornaments were rare pearls, which have been for many years in the Branham family, and whose ownership is the most exquisite. Between her ears a beautiful fan of maroon feathers, whose stalks were of pearl, and carried the ivory-bound prayer book, from which Bishop Beckwith, assisted by Rev. Mr. Harman, read the beautiful service of the Episcopal church.

During the first ceremony the organ and violin played very softly Schubert's "Time Is My Heart."

The party left the church to the strains of the "Tambourin" grand march and were driven to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith on Ponce de Leon circle.

The decorations at this pretty home were confined chiefly to the dining room, but the brilliantly lighted reception room, where the wedding party received the few intimate friends and relatives, was very handsome. Mrs. H. H. Smith wore an exquisite gown of Arabians satin and brocade, very becoming to her striking beauty. Her ornaments were diamonds.

In the diningroom the large round table in the center of the room was almost hidden under an enormous star of bride roses and ferns, in the center of which, on a beveled mirror, stood a large crystal rose bowl of La France roses. Between the points of the star were crystal candelabras, whose white waxen tapers lighted up the handsome room that capped each candelabra. Creeping around the edge of the table was a vine of smilax, whose feathery tendrils caught up the damask in many places.

In the recesses were placed a number of tete-a-tete tables, decorated in the prevailing tones. Lined about the massive pillars were strands of smilax, while the large sideboard was banked in palms and roses. A number of silver parlor lamps with dainty shades of field daisies and grasses, and candelabras in gold, gave an additional lustre to an already brilliant scene.

After an all too brief evening the young couple left for New York, where they will be the recipients of many attentions until the 10th of May, when they will go to Europe for a several months' trip. Few young people begin their married life under more favorable circumstances. Miss Branham has been a noted belle of the south and greatly followed by the many admirers and friends who will follow her in her new home with marked interest. Mr. Appleton has been in Atlanta long enough to make many friends who heartily congratulate him on his good fortune in securing one of Dixie's fair daughters.

Among those who were present at the wedding were Mr. D. S. Appleton, the head of the great Appleton house, Mr. Henry Appleton, Mr. Edward Appleton, Miss Appleton, Mr. Lamson, and Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York; besides, many prominent people from different cities of Georgia.

HARRISON WEBSTER.
At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Webster, 34 Hood street, yesterday, at 4 o'clock p. m., their lovely daughter, Miss Lena, was united in marriage to Mr. J. M. Harrison, of Columbus, Ga., in the presence of only the relatives and a few friends. The bride, one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies in this city, never looked more charming in her life. The decorations consisted of ferns, palms, roses and other flowers so arranged as to produce a beautiful effect. The parlor formed an exquisite picture of floral beauty. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. W. Lee, a former pastor of the bride, and Rev. Dr. Barnett, in a very impressive manner, after which a delightful luncheon was served. Then farewells said, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison took their departure for the north, where they will spend some time. Mr. Harrison is one of the rising young men of Columbus, and his life gives much promise for the future. He is to be congratulated upon the fair prize he has won.

DAWSON-PEARSON.
Mr. William Dawson, the organist of St. Philip's church, and Mrs. Elsie M. Pearson, were quietly married last Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride. Rev. Mr. Funsten performed the ceremony.

INMAN-HOLT.
Macon, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—This afternoon Miss Nannie Holt, daughter of the late Judge T. G. Holt, of Macon, was united in marriage to Mr. W. H. Inman, of Atlanta, at the home of the bride's mother in this city. The ceremony was very quiet, only relatives of the high contracting parties, and one or two intimate friends being in attendance. Rev. Mr. Wardlaw, of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

Miss Nannie Holt is one of the most beautiful and fascinating young ladies that ever lived in Georgia. She has reigned a favorite queen in society since her debut, and no belle ever had more admirers. She is a lovely bride, a rare jewel of whom any man might be truly proud. Mr. Inman is one of Atlanta's most popular and accomplished young gentlemen. He possesses wealth and many of the attributes of true manhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Inman left on the 5:35 train this afternoon for Atlanta. They will make a tour of Europe.

Mrs. W. P. Inman, John W. Inman and Mr. J. W. English, Jr., of Atlanta, were present at the marriage.

STRICKLAND-BENHAM.
CARTERSVILLE, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—One of the most brilliant weddings ever witnessed in Cartersville occurred at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at the Methodist church. It was the marriage of Mr. Albert Strickland to Miss Kate Benham, Rev. Dr. Strickland officiating. The church was most beautifully and artistically decorated. The church was profusely banked with the richest exotics and rare plants—presenting a scene of exquisite loveliness. The ushers were J. M. Field, Albert Schreier, A. D. Cuyler and Calhoun Marshall. The attendants were Dr. and Mrs. Hutchins, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Simpson; Will Young and Miss Addie Henderson, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.; John Jacobs and Miss Lila White.

The groom is a young man of great popularity and sterling qualities. He is the junior member of the prosperous mercantile firm of Strickland Bros. The bride is a daughter of Dr. W. L. Benham, and is a young lady of beauty, culture and refinement, possessing hosts of admirers. Mr. and Mrs. Strickland left on the 11:45 train for an extended trip east.

MOONEY-KIMBALL.
ROME, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—Mr. B. R. Mooney and Miss Olla Kimball were married today at the residence of the bride's father, G. F. Kimball, in the fourth ward. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Marshall. The attendants were Dr. and Mrs. Hutchins, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Simpson; Will Young and Miss Addie Henderson, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.; John Jacobs and Miss Lila White.

town, this afternoon, with Dr. W. A. Chapman and bride, nee Miss Lizzie Peck, who left for Virginia on a bridal tour. The attendants and friends who accompanied them to Rome returned on the 7 o'clock train. A special train left here at 7 o'clock this evening for Cave Springs with a great many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Corput, who celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding tonight. The special was provided for the invited guests from Rome and will return after the event.

WHARTON-HOLT.
GRANVILLE, N. C., April 30.—[Special.]—One of the most brilliant weddings which ever took place in North Carolina, was celebrated yesterday in Graham, at the residence of Mr. L. Banks Holt. His beautiful daughter, Miss Kittie Mobane Holt, was married to Mr. Morton H. Wharton, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala. Eleven couples acted as attendants. Six states were represented, and more than two hundred guests were present. Atlanta was represented by Mr. John M. Moore and family and Mr. Wilmer L. Moore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. M. B. Wharton, assisted by Rev. H. M. Wharton.

MERAGNE-BAILEY.
PALATKA, Fla., April 30.—[Special.]—Married, this afternoon, at 2:30, W. B. Meragne and Miss Mary Bailey. The Episcopal church was crowded with friends of both parties. The floral decorations were superb. Mr. Meragne is a native of South Carolina, but has lived most of his life here; his bride is a native of Charleston, and a sister of Mayor Bailey of Palatka. Both parties have hosts of friends.

SILVER WEDDING.
CAVE SPRING, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—The silver wedding of Hon. and Mrs. Corput tonight is the most elaborate social event ever celebrated here. Numerous friends have responded to the invitation to be present, and the scene is one of interest and beauty.

Other Society News.
Lieutenant and Mrs. Walker are at home after an absence of several weeks in the north.

Mr. Eugene Sanders, of Spartanburg, S. C., is visiting his cousin, Preston Daniel, at 37 Peach street.

Major and Mrs. Robert Anderson have taken a party of young people in a private car for a few days' outing up the Western and Atlantic road. In the company are the Misses Toole, of Alabama; Miss Emma Richards, Miss Maud Craig, the Misses Wallace, of Cartersville, Mr. Jesse Rankin and others.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sheek, after a three months' stay in Florida, have returned home.

Mrs. H. A. Tarver, of Albany, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. French, at 437 West Peters street, for a few days.

Mrs. P. W. Walton, of Madison, is the guest of Mrs. T. B. Brady, 179 East Fair street.

Miss Saurie Lee Van Hoose, of Gainesville, passed through the city yesterday en route to Macon, where she will be the guest of Dr. Battle. Miss Van Hoose is one of the most successful and accomplished teachers in the Georgia Baptist seminary at Gainesville. As a social favorite in that delightful place Miss Van Hoose is well known.

Miss Corine Niseler, one of Charlotte's social favorites, has just returned to her home after a pleasant visit to friends in Atlanta.

JEFFERSON, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—Colonel and Mrs. Hugh Brock and company, en route to their visiting friends on yesterday. Among the present were: Messrs. Will Hancock, Arthur McElhanon, Rob House and John B. Sellman; Misses Mattie and Callie Watson and Sallie Bell. This party was given in honor of Miss Myra Robinson, of Atlanta. The crowd was all that could be asked, and the party was a grand success.

CALHOUN, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—Quite an enjoyable and pleasant social entertainment and dance was given at the Calhoun hotel Monday evening by Editor H. H. Chapman and his wife. At an early hour the guests came in, and after a part of the evening was spent in social pastime, repaired to the ball room, where, in obedience to the stentorian voice of a noted caller, the "waltz," "tipped the light fantastic toe" till the wee sma' hours of the morning. The following couples were present: Mr. Lem Crawford with Miss Agnes Tinsley; Mr. J. C. Fain, Jr., with Miss Lizzie Jones; Dr. R. M. Harbin with Miss Nettie Wells; Dr. A. L. Tyne, of Detroit, Mich., with Miss Laura Wells; Mr. John W. Logan with Miss Edna Pulliam; Mrs. C. O. Booz; Messrs. George Harlan, Jim Booz, Dr. W. B. McKnight and others.

AT THE THEATRE.

The Adele Frost company will give two performances today. At the matinee "Ingomar" will be presented, and at night, "The Three Comedies," which will show well the versatility of talent of its members.

"Led Astray" was the bill last night, and star and company scored another success. The audience was quite large, and everybody was delighted.

The comedy billed for tonight will doubtless prove a drawing card. The company is made up of able and versatile people, and the plays will doubtless be well put on, a great deal of interest will be in these comedies.

Miss Adele Frost will close her season next Saturday with the great play of "Virginia." It has been her greatest success of their tour, and she is said to make the sweetest and most bewitching "Virginia," while Edmund Collier is the perfect type of the grand Roman father.

This performance will have a double interest, for us in the parts that Mr. Scott Thornton has consented to personate, the difficult role of "Ingomar" at the matinee, and will appear at night in "Three Comedies," which will show well the versatility of talent of its members.

Edgewood Park Sale of Lots
Thursday May 8 by Saml' W. Goode & Co. Look out for plots.

Van Houten's Cocoa
Reception daily for one week at Hoyt & Thors', Sample cup free, everybody invited.

To Dispel Colds.
Headaches and fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when constive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Attention, Everybody.
Attend the sale of Ballard property, on Peachtree street, today at 4 p. m. G. W. ADAIR.

Go to Donehoo's Ladies' Restaurant and Ice Cream saloon for the finest ice cream in the city.

Vanilla and chocolate ice cream, also strawberries and cream at Donehoo's.

Scratch Plate Engraving.
We have made arrangements whereby we are able to do all kinds of scratch plate engraving at the lowest possible price. This kind of engraving is something new and shows up in a beautiful manner. We have a special artist for this work, and are prepared to fill your order in a satisfactory manner on the shortest notice. Send for samples and prices. The Constitution, April 30—d. t.

The Atlanta Female Institute.
108 feet front on Peachtree by 260 deep, with elegant building, at auction today at 4 p. m. sharp. G. W. ADAIR.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

HOLLIS.—The friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hollis are requested to attend the funeral of their infant son, Thursday morning, May 1st, at 10 o'clock, from the residence, 280 East Hunter street. Interment at Oakland.

ROBERT.—Died April 30, 1890, Mrs. B. F. Robert. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Robert and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Robert are invited to attend the funeral today at 4 p. m. from the residence, 180 E. Hunter street. Burial Oakland.

PEACOCK.—Died April 30, 1890, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peacock. The friends of the parents and Mr. J. K. Anthony are invited to attend the funeral today from the residence, 8 East street, at 9 a. m.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH IN BELLWOOD DESTROYED BY FIRE.

And Mr. Harry King's Residence Reduced to Ashes by the Flames About Three O'clock Yesterday Morning.

Bellwood was alarmed by a fire about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The origin of the fire is unknown. Box twenty-nine, corner of Marietta and Pine streets was pulled, and the department responded, but when they reached the city limits they found that the fire was away out in Bellwood.

The residence of Mr. Harry King, near the Seventh Baptist church, first caught, and by the time the alarm was sounded it was nearly destroyed, though most of the furniture was saved.

The loss was between $300 and $500, and the house was insured for $400.

The church building caught fire, and as there was no means of fighting the fire, it was soon reduced to ashes. This is the same church of which Rev. Mr. Dale, who figured in the Dale-Nuttall sensation, was formerly pastor.

It was worth $700 or $800, and was partially insured.

As the department was returning, a policeman discovered the blaze in the distance and pulled box 12, near No. 1 engine house.

The firemen put their horses into a run, but arrived at the engine house only to find that it was a false alarm, or rather a blunder.

Just about that time somebody pulled box No. 31, near the Central railroad depot, for the same fire.

Another wild dash ensued, and when the department found that they had three runs for the same fire, and it was outside the city, they were rather disgusted.

BASEBALL YESTERDAY.

At Brooklyn—[League]—Brooklyn.....0 2 0 0 0 3 0 1-8 Boston.....0 2 0 0 1 0 0 0-7

At Philadelphia—[League]—Philadelphia.....0 3 0 0 3 2 0 1-9

At New York—[League]—New York.....0 3 0 0 3 2 0 1-9

At Cleveland—[League]—Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cincinnati—[League]—Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Chicago—[League]—Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At St. Louis—[League]—St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Pittsburgh—[League]—Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Baltimore—[League]—Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Washington—[League]—Washington.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Boston—[League]—Boston.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Philadelphia—[League]—Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At New York—[League]—New York.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cleveland—[League]—Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cincinnati—[League]—Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Chicago—[League]—Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At St. Louis—[League]—St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Pittsburgh—[League]—Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Baltimore—[League]—Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Washington—[League]—Washington.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Boston—[League]—Boston.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Philadelphia—[League]—Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At New York—[League]—New York.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cleveland—[League]—Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cincinnati—[League]—Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Chicago—[League]—Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At St. Louis—[League]—St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Pittsburgh—[League]—Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Baltimore—[League]—Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Washington—[League]—Washington.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Boston—[League]—Boston.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Philadelphia—[League]—Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At New York—[League]—New York.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cleveland—[League]—Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cincinnati—[League]—Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Chicago—[League]—Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At St. Louis—[League]—St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Pittsburgh—[League]—Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Baltimore—[League]—Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Washington—[League]—Washington.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Boston—[League]—Boston.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Philadelphia—[League]—Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At New York—[League]—New York.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cleveland—[League]—Cleveland.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Cincinnati—[League]—Cincinnati.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

At Chicago—[League]—Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0

A FLAG WANTED.

The Twenty-Seventh Illinois Regiment Trying to Find the Flag They Lost in Battle.

The Twenty-Seventh Illinois regiment want the flag they lost in battle more than a quarter of a century ago.

Adjutant-General Kell received the following letter yesterday, which explains when and how the flag was lost:

ASSAULT, Ill., April 28, 1890.—Adjutant-General State of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga. Sir: I have the honor to ask the following favor of you: At the battle of Kenesaw Mountain, June 27th, 1864, we lost our colors, the 27th Illinois Infantry. We think they fell into the hands of Tennessee or Georgia troops, and are very desirous of securing them again. At our regimental reunion, at Danbury recently, it was decided to try and recover the flag. I have your information about it? The flag is in the hands of the state. I think the following on the flag is correct: "Presented to the 27th Illinois Regiment by Brigadier-General U. B. Buford." Our association will feel very grateful to you if you will help us in this matter. It was a sick flag much worn. Yours truly I. G. HEAPS.

SCOTT THORNTON TO PLAY.

In Atlanta, May 9th, and on the 12th in Scott Thornton, the tragedian, will play here next Friday night week, the 9th, in his favorite, "The Fool's Revenge."

That the opera house will be crowded is a matter of course.

Mr. Thornton's superb powers are shown at the best in this part. He will be strongly supported, the company including a fair percentage of local talent.

Only the night performance will be played here.

The same play will be given Monday, the 12th, in Rome.

DR. W. J. TUCKER

Treats Successfully All Chronic Diseases.

Deposited with the Lowry Banking Co., of Atlanta, Ga., will promptly pay to any one who will disprove any of the following statements:

This means just as it reads. The following persons are the best of their kind in the following statements similar to these in my office:

Colonel Wash. Ruff, attorney-at-law, 132 Broughton street, Savannah, Ga., says that he has for five years suffered with severe stricture and ulceration of the rectum. After having tried many of the most eminent physicians in Georgia, and having traveled nearly all over the country in search of health, I found no relief until I put myself under Dr. W. J. Tucker, who in the short space of three months I find myself nearly well.

Mrs. H. P. Stevens, an estimable lady of Waycross, Ga., says: Five years ago I was given up to die by the best physicians of southeast Georgia, all of whom said I could not live but a few weeks. As the doctor determined to try Dr. W. J. Tucker, of Atlanta, Ga., in less than three months the doctor had me restored to health. I am confident I would have died had it not been for his marvelous skill.

W. H. Phillips, Simsboro, La., says: I have suffered some ten years with liver disease and chronic diarrhoea, and after being treated by Dr. W. J. Tucker a very short time am almost entirely well.

Dr. Fred B. Palmer, Atlanta, Ga., one of the best known and most popular druggists of Georgia, and also himself a physician, says that for many years with piles, cured by Dr. W. J. Tucker and remains perfectly well.

Mrs. F. Kinney, Canaan, Ga., says: I have experienced the most remarkable benefit from Dr. W. J. Tucker's treatment, gained fifteen or twenty pounds in the last few months. I am all suffering ladies to give him a trial.

Hon. E. E. Foy, Egypt, Ga., says: I have suffered for many years with a chronic malady, was cured by Dr. W. J. Tucker three years ago, and lose no opportunity to tell the afflicted of Dr. Tucker's skill.

The above statements are all true; no sane man would publish them if they were not, and if you do not believe me, write to the parties and I will satisfy you. I treat successfully chronic diseases and weaknesses of both sexes. I treat all who have dealings with me honestly and conscientiously. I am responsible for what I say and do, professionally, financially and individually. If you are afflicted write to me or call and you shall have my best opinion.

Treating Patients by Correspondence.

It is rarely necessary for me to see my patients. Many patients can be treated successfully by meeting the physician direct. Patients should always give age, sex, married or single, present and former weight (as near as possible) and occupation. Follow this with history of case in your own language, giving all symptoms, including stamp for reply.

W. J. TUCKER, M. D.,
9 Marietta Street, Atlanta, Ga.
thurs sun wky

RAILROAD COMMISSION OF GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 29, 1890.

L. N. TRAMMELL, Chairman, } Commissioners.
ALEX. S. ERWIN, }
JAS. W. ROBERTSON, }

A. C. BRISCOE, Secretary.

Circular No. 166.

Proposed Removal of the Percentages Allowed on the Commissioners' Standard Tariff.

Notice is hereby given that the Commission has under consideration the question of the removal of all percentages over and above the Commissioners' Standard Tariff now allowed railroad companies doing business within this state. All railroad companies, and other parties interested, are hereby notified that, if they so desire, they will be heard on this question at the office of the Commission, in the city of Atlanta, at 10 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, May 7th, 1890.

By order of the board.

A. C. BRISCOE, Secretary.

L. N. TRAMMELL, Chairman.

OVINGTON AND MACON RAILROAD.

Time table No. 7. To take effect at 6:30 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, April 16, 1890. Trains run on central (90th Meridian) standard time.

A. G. CRAIG, Acting Superintendent.

$1,000 AN ACRE.THE WONDERFUL PRODUCTION OF DOUGHLASS LAND.

The Work Accomplished on One-Eighth of an Acre During the Leisure Hours of a Busy Man.

ALBANY, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—Mr. G. C. Hurley, who is night watchman at one of Albany's cotton warehouses, spends what leisure time he can spare from rest, during the day, in cultivating cabbages. He raises splendid specimens of this popular vegetable, as fine as any brought from north or west. He finds ready sale for all he can raise, his customers seeking him instead of his having to take much time in peddling them around.

THE YIELD MADE.

On one-eighth of an acre, he raised, this year, 800 cabbages, 200 of them, planted late, were killed by the cold snap. The other 600 he sold at an average of fifteen cents each, making the sum of ninety dollars from this sale. Had the late frost not overtaken him, he would have obtained $125 for his cabbages raised on one-eighth of an acre, showing that Albany soil can produce a crop worth one thousand dollars per acre, and that with but little care or attention, save copious waterings during the dry season.

THE ENGLISH SPARROWS.

Upon the great outer leaves of the cabbages, countless English sparrows were seen, dashing about between the leaves. Occasionally they would emerge, flying to the neighboring trees, while others would take their places with great chattering and confusion.

"Do not English sparrows play havoc with your vegetables?" asked the correspondent, of the ravages of these little Britons flashing through his mind.

"No," replied Mr. Hurley, "they have been a benefit to them. I have not been troubled with insects, which are generally so destructive to these tender vegetables in a warm climate, and I attribute this exemption from these pests to the energetic efforts of the sparrows. They have not troubled the cabbages, but have fed upon their enemies."

SOME MACON EVENTS.

Which Deserve a Passing Notice in the Press.

MACON, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—A large number of Maconites have gone to Savannah to attend Merchants' week.

One of the attractions promised for the State fair is a large trades display. It is thought that the merchants of Macon will enter heartily in the project.

The early closing hour movement has commenced in Macon. The real estate and insurance agents have taken the initiative and have agreed to close their places of business at 6 o'clock p. m., beginning May 1st. The various merchants in the city will no doubt do likewise.

The picnic season has commenced. Most of the Sunday schools will have May day celebration out of the city. The favorite places are Beech Haven, on the Georgia Southern road, and Adams Park, on the East Tennessee road.

Colonel C. M. Wiley has returned from Eastman, where he inspected the guards. He says they stood a fine inspection, and he recommended them to the adjutant-general.

Captain Sims, of the Southern Cadets, has gone to Columbus, Tallahassee and Montezuma to inspect companies there.

A large gospel tent will soon be erected in Macon, and services will be conducted by several preachers.

A tailors' union was formed in Macon Monday night. It will be a branch of the American Tailors' union.

The anniversary celebration of the Ciceronian and Phi Delta Literary societies, of Macon city will take place on Sunday morning, May 30th. A. W. Lane, of Monticello, and B. Willingham, of Atlanta, are the anniversary speakers.

The friends and admirers of Sister Margaret, late of the Appleton church home, will put a handsome window in St. Paul's church as a memorial to her. Sister Margaret was a truly noble spirit, and the memorial is a just tribute to her life and character.

Hon. N. E. Harris has returned from an important business trip to Baltimore. President John E. Jones, of the Covington and Macon road, has gone north on a business visit.

Chief Engineer Carter will soon furnish specifications to Messrs. Morrison Rogers and George T. Harris, of the Georgia Southern road, for a government snag boat on which bids for building the same will be solicited. Macon bidders will be in the field.

Mrs. J. A. Peacock, of Dublin, is visiting relatives in Macon.

THE PRETTY PICTURE.

Drawn by a Highly Imaginative and Poetic Editor.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—Milledgeville at this season of the year is as pretty as a poet's dream and last Sunday was a day of enchanting loveliness. The tall and stately elms that shade her streets were clad in spring time verdure and thousands of pretty birds, reveling in the fragrant atmosphere of the air with melodious music; the broad and stately elms that shade her streets were clad in spring time verdure and thousands of pretty birds, reveling in the fragrant atmosphere of the air with melodious music; the broad and stately elms that shade her streets were clad in spring time verdure and thousands of pretty birds, reveling in the fragrant atmosphere of the air with melodious music.

Shaped avenues from the scenes of life and business to the rugged and rustic landscape beyond the city's limits; then the pretty homes of her happy people, surrounded by flower yards where bees gathered nectar and humming birds flitted from flower to flower, while the odor of violets and geraniums was wafted on every passing breeze; little girls and boys, young men and ladies, old men and women, clad in spring time verdure and each in his own sphere, basking in the bracing atmosphere, promenade through the delightful resorts and enjoyed the beauties of a splendid sabbath day, one that seemed especially attuned to the worship of God.

Hope for the Carnesville Road.

CARNESVILLE, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—The Carnesville railroad received a communication from Hon. Pope Barrow, counsel for the Richmond and Danville Railroad company, in which there is a proposition to complete our road that will doubtless be accepted; and the Carnesville road will be completed in time to haul off the cotton crop this fall. This place is jubilant and has bright prospects for a railroad at an early day.

One Man Killed.

SPARTA, Ga., April 30.—[Special.]—While two negro men, Andrew Latimer and Bush Mitchell, were at work at the Quincy Granite works this morning cleaning out a blast, an unexpected explosion occurred, instantly killing Andrew Latimer, and fatally injuring the other man. The casualty is all the more regrettable because both men were industrious, competent and well esteemed.

A Symptom Is Not a Disease.

The suffering rheumatic would look incredulous if told his rheumatism was not a disease. Also the sufferer from catarrh, with his sore, tender and excruciating nostrils, if told catarrh was but a symptom. Yet such it is, in fact. The disease from which a man or woman suffers who has rheumatism or catarrh is blood poisoning. How did the poison get into the blood? From various causes, cold exposure, indigestion, contagion, etc., may have been the cause. No matter, your blood is impure, and you will suffer just so long as this great stream of life is clogged with particles of impurity. Then why not strike at the root or cause of your rheumatism or catarrh by annihilating the enemies of good health that exist in your blood. This can be done by using Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. Its alterative virtue will quickly cleanse the blood of every impurity, and thousands have thus by its use been permanently cured of rheumatism and catarrh. No other remedy in the world acts so powerfully and yet so harmlessly as a blood purifier. It conquers as if by magic all tendency to eruptive, irritating and painful ailments.

John M. Miller is the first to introduce the pound package note paper, ruled or unruled.

Ed. L. Grant, Sign Painter, 53 Peachtree, phone 604. Signs and banners made and shipped everywhere. Glass, wood and wall advertising signs. Agent-day Irish linen note paper sold by the pound with envelopes to match at John M. Miller's, 31 Marietta street.

Cypress shingles $3.25 per 1,000, delivered. Atlanta Lumber Co. ap 16 d 1m

Ed. L. Grant, Sign Painter, 53 Peachtree, phone 604. Signs and banners made and shipped everywhere. Glass, wood and wall advertising signs. Agent-day

AN ANGRY TOBACCO MAN.

Who Threatens to Withdraw a Prominent Citizen.

RICHMOND, Va., April 30.—[Special.]—Considerable excitement was occasioned on the floor of the Tobacco exchange, when Mr. B. Taylor McCue, who appeared with a buggy whip in one hand and a gold-headed cane in the other, excitedly declared that he intended to horsewhip Mr. E. D. Christian.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time. Mr. McCue, in the meantime, had gone down stairs, and was supposed to be in his private office. If he saw Mr. Christian, he did not count out to attack him. The police were telephoned for, and three officers responded, but they were not needed. Mr. McCue soon got into his buggy and drove away, and was arrested later on the charge of assaulting and threatening to horsewhip Mr. Christian. Mr. McCue seems to have become angered because of the alleged letter written recently by him to the secretary of the association asking for a list of its members so that he could make them defendants to the suit, which he declares his intention of bringing against them individually and collectively, for $200,000, for alleged damages of character in certain resolutions recently adopted by the body. They were with reference to a letter of commendation given McCue by the president, Dr. Patterson, over his official signature, and the trade, in mass meeting, exonerated the president, but declared his disapproval of his action. The letter referred to was not sealed, and it is customary for other officers in the exchange to open communications in the secretary's absence.

McCue is a member of the trade and a well-known tobacco merchant. Mr. Christian is vice-president of the Tobacco association and one of its most wealthy members. At first Mr. Christian did not pay any attention to Mr. McCue, but when the latter had beckoned to him several times to go out the room with him, and continued to boldly make this threat, Mr. Christian, who had a brief conversation with friends, quietly walked out and passed in front of Mr. McCue's office door, and stood about there for some little time

FINANCE AND COMMERCE. BONDS, STOCKS AND MONEY.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE.

Atlanta, April 30, 1896.
New York exchange ruling at par and selling at 1/4 premium.

STATE AND CITY BONDS.	Bid.	Asked.
New Georgia 4 1/2% 30 year.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 7% gold.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 7% 1890.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1892.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Savannah 1892.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1894.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1895.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1896.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1897.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1898.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1899.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1900.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1901.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1902.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1903.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1904.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1905.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1906.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1907.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1908.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1909.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1910.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1911.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1912.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1913.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1914.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1915.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1916.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1917.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1918.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1919.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1920.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1921.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1922.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1923.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1924.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1925.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1926.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1927.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1928.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1929.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1930.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1931.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1932.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1933.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1934.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1935.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1936.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1937.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1938.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1939.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1940.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1941.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1942.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1943.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1944.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1945.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1946.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1947.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1948.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1949.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1950.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1951.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1952.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1953.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1954.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1955.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1956.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1957.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1958.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1959.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1960.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1961.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1962.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1963.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1964.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1965.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1966.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1967.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1968.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1969.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1970.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1971.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1972.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1973.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1974.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1975.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1976.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1977.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1978.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1979.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1980.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1981.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1982.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1983.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1984.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1985.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1986.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1987.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1988.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1989.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1990.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1991.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1992.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1993.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1994.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1995.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1996.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1997.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1998.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 1999.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Atlanta 2000.	107 1/2	108 1/2

RAILROAD BONDS.	Bid.	Asked.
Georgia 1897.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1898.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1899.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1900.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1901.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1902.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1903.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1904.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1905.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1906.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1907.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1908.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1909.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1910.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1911.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1912.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1913.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1914.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1915.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1916.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1917.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1918.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1919.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1920.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1921.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1922.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1923.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1924.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1925.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1926.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1927.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1928.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1929.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1930.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1931.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1932.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1933.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1934.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1935.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1936.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1937.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1938.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1939.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1940.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1941.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1942.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1943.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1944.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1945.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1946.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1947.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1948.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1949.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1950.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1951.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1952.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1953.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1954.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1955.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1956.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1957.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1958.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1959.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1960.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1961.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1962.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1963.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1964.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1965.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1966.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1967.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1968.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1969.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1970.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1971.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1972.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1973.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1974.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1975.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1976.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1977.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1978.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1979.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1980.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1981.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1982.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1983.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1984.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1985.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1986.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1987.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1988.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1989.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1990.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1991.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1992.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1993.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1994.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1995.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1996.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1997.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1998.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 1999.	107 1/2	108 1/2
Georgia 2000.	107 1/2	108 1/2

THE STOCK MARKET.

The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The stock market showed some increase in trading today, but that was all in the afternoon, while it was feverish and irregular during most of the time, and for the first time in many days general changes show a majority of losses, though they are confined to fractional amounts in all cases. The reaction was due to a combination of causes, though the chief of them is probably the desire of the sold-out crowd to recover their late sales at a profit. There is also a feeling of uneasiness over the labor demonstrations to be held tomorrow, both here and abroad, and the question as to whether these demonstrations will pass off quietly or inaugurate a series of strikes and a consequent interruption of business. In addition to this there is the lack of anything to show the probability of an early settlement of the western railroad fight, as the news of such a settlement, circulated yesterday, was evidently premature. There seems to be no confidence that Missouri Pacific and Rock Island will be able to agree on terms, but the fight between these roads has almost ceased to be a disturbing element in the general market, though a settlement would undoubtedly add to the general feeling of confidence and speculation. Some events of minor importance, such as the large bank failure in Philadelphia, the usual temporary scarcity of money incident to the first of the month, had their influence. The leading features of the day were: St. Paul, Rock Island, Northern Pacific preferred, Canada Southern and Wheeling and Lake Erie common, and those stocks are the only ones showing any improvement at the close of the day. On the other hand, New England, Missouri Pacific, Lake Shore and some of the specialties were most conspicuous for weakness. A great sustaining factor in the market was the still unusually large amount of purchases for foreign accounts, notwithstanding the fact that today was holiday in Berlin, and tomorrow will be one in London. The high figures cabled from London are, in some measure, due to the fact that two weeks' interest is carried upon them, and when the next settlement day comes their figures will be more upon a parity with ours. There was no response to the London buying this morning, and the first prices were generally unchanged or but slightly different from last evening's figures, and the pressure to sell, notwithstanding the fact that the foreigners caused a fractional recession in the early dealings, which was followed by comparative dullness. This seemed to bring in new buying again, however, and the market recovered slowly until late in the day when the high rates for money, which rose to six per cent, again sagged the list off, though the close was quite firm. The strength shown at times by Canada Southern, Rock Island, Burlington and Quincy, and Northern Pacific preferred, helped on the rally materially. Sales of listed reached 319,000; unlisted 46,000 shares.

Exchange quiet and at 486,488.
Money easy at 4 1/2%, closing offered 5.
Subsidiary markets: Coin $162,235,000; currency, $4,674,000.
Governments dull but steady: 4 1/2%; 4 1/4%; 100%.

ney, $4,674,000.
State bonds dull but steady; 4 1/2; 4 1/4; 100%.
Ill. 4 1/2, 100%.	94
do., Class B 5 to 10, 100%.	108
do., Class C 10 to 15, 100%.	108
do., Class D 15 to 20, 100%.	108
do., Class E 20 to 25, 100%.	108
do., Class F 25 to 30, 100%.	108
do., Class G 30 to 35, 100%.	108
do., Class H 35 to 40, 100%.	108
do., Class I 40 to 45, 100%.	108
do., Class J 45 to 50, 100%.	108
do., Class K 50 to 55, 100%.	108
do., Class L 55 to 60, 100%.	108
do., Class M 60 to 65, 100%.	108
do., Class N 65 to 70, 100%.	108
do., Class O 70 to 75, 100%.	108
do., Class P 75 to 80, 100%.	108
do., Class Q 80 to 85, 100%.	108
do., Class R 85 to 90, 100%.	108
do., Class S 90 to 95, 100%.	108
do., Class T 95 to 100, 100%.	108
do., Class U 100 to 105, 100%.	108
do., Class V 105 to 110, 100%.	108
do., Class W 110 to 115, 100%.	108
do., Class X 115 to 120, 100%.	108
do., Class Y 120 to 125, 100%.	108
do., Class Z 125 to 130, 100%.	108
do., Class AA 130 to 135, 100%.	108
do., Class AB 135 to 140, 100%.	108
do., Class AC 140 to 145, 100%.	108
do., Class AD 145 to 150, 100%.	108
do., Class AE 150 to 155, 100%.	108
do., Class AF 155 to 160, 100%.	108
do., Class AG 160 to 165, 100%.	108
do., Class AH 165 to 170, 100%.	108
do., Class AI 170 to 175, 100%.	108
do., Class AJ 175 to 180, 100%.	108
do., Class AK 180 to 185, 100%.	108
do., Class AL 185 to 190, 100%.	108
do., Class AM 190 to 195, 100%.	108
do., Class AN 195 to 200, 100%.	108
do., Class AO 200 to 205, 100%.	108
do., Class AP 205 to 210, 100%.	108
do., Class AQ 210 to 215, 100%.	108
do., Class AR 215 to 220, 100%.	108
do., Class AS 220 to 225, 100%.	108
do., Class AT 225 to 230, 100%.	108
do., Class AU 230 to 235, 100%.	108
do., Class AV 235 to 240, 100%.	108
do., Class AW 240 to 245, 100%.	108
do., Class AX 245 to 250, 100%.	108
do., Class AY 250 to 255, 100%.	108
do., Class AZ 255 to 260, 100%.	108
do., Class BA 260 to 265, 100%.	108
do., Class BB 265 to 270, 100%.	108
do., Class BC 270 to 275, 100%.	108
do., Class BD 275 to 280, 100%.	108
do., Class BE 280 to 285, 100%.	108
do., Class BF 285 to 290, 100%.	108
do., Class BG 290 to 295, 100%.	108
do., Class BH 295 to 300, 100%.	108
do., Class BI 300 to 305, 100%.	108
do., Class BJ 305 to 310, 100%.	108
do., Class BK 310 to 315, 100%.	108
do., Class BL 315 to 320, 100%.	108
do., Class BM 320 to 325, 100%.	108
do., Class BN 325 to 330, 100%.	108
do., Class BO 330 to 335, 100%.	108
do., Class BP 335 to 340, 100%.	108
do., Class BQ 340 to 345, 100%.	108
do., Class BR 345 to 350, 100%.	108
do., Class BS 350 to 355, 100%.	108
do., Class BT 355 to 360, 100%.	108
do., Class BU 360 to 365, 100%.	108
do., Class BV 365 to 370, 100%.	108
do., Class BW 370 to 375, 100%.	108
do., Class BX 375 to 380, 100%.	108
do., Class BY 380 to 385, 100%.	108
do., Class BZ 385 to 390, 100%.	108
do., Class CA 390 to 395, 100%.	108
do., Class CB 395 to 400, 100%.	108
do., Class CC 400 to 405, 100%.	108
do., Class CD 405 to 410, 100%.	108
do., Class CE 410 to 415, 100%.	108
do., Class CF 415 to 420, 100%.	108
do., Class CG 420 to 425, 100%.	108
do., Class CH 425 to 430, 100%.	108
do., Class CI 430 to 435, 100%.	108
do., Class CJ 435 to 440, 100%.	108
do., Class CK 440 to 445, 100%.	108
do., Class CL 445 to 450, 100%.	108
do., Class CM 450 to 455, 100%.	108
do., Class CN 455 to 460, 100%.	108
do., Class CO 460 to 465, 100%.	108
do., Class CP 465 to 470, 100%.	108
do., Class CQ 470 to 475, 100%.	108
do., Class CR 475 to 480, 100%.	108
do., Class CS 480 to 485, 100%.	108
do., Class CT 485 to 490, 100%.	108
do., Class CU 490 to 495, 100%.	108
do., Class CV 495 to 500, 100%.	108
do., Class CW 500 to 505, 100%.	108
do., Class CX 505 to 510, 100%.	108
do., Class CY 510 to 515, 100%.	108
do., Class CZ 515 to 520, 100%.	108
do., Class DA 520 to 525, 100%.	108
do., Class DB 525 to 530, 100%.	108
do., Class DC 530 to 535, 100%.	108
do., Class DD 535 to 540, 100%.	108
do., Class DE 540 to 545, 100%.	108
do., Class DF 545 to 550, 100%.	108
do., Class DG 550 to 555, 100%.	108
do., Class DH 555 to 560, 100%.	108
do., Class DI 560 to 565, 100%.	108
do., Class DJ 565 to 570, 100%.	108
do., Class DK 570 to 575, 100%.	108
do., Class DL 575 to 580, 100%.	108
do., Class DM 580 to 585, 100%.	108
do., Class DN 585 to 590, 100%.	108
do., Class DO 590 to 595, 100%.	108
do., Class DP 595 to 600, 100%.	108
do., Class DQ 600 to 605, 100%.	108
do., Class DR 605 to 610, 100%.	108
do., Class DS 610 to 615, 100%.	108
do., Class DT 615 to 620, 100%.	108
do., Class DU 620 to 625, 100%.	108
do., Class DV 625 to 630, 100%.	108
do., Class DW 630 to 635, 100%.	108
do., Class DX 635 to 640, 100%.	108
do., Class DY 640 to 645, 100%.	108
do., Class DZ 645 to 650, 100%.	108
do., Class EA 650 to 655, 100%.	108
do., Class EB 655 to 660, 100%.	108
do., Class EC 660 to 665, 100%.	108
do., Class ED 665 to 670, 100%.	108
do., Class EE 670 to 675, 100%.	108
do., Class EF 675 to 680, 100%.	108
do., Class EG 680 to 685, 100%.	108
do., Class EH 685 to 690, 100%.	108
do., Class EI 690 to 695, 100%.	108
do., Class EJ 695 to 700, 100%.	108
do., Class EK 700 to 705, 100%.	108
do., Class EL 705 to 710, 100%.	108
do., Class EM 710 to 715, 100%.	108
do., Class EN 715 to 720, 100%.	108
do., Class EO 720 to 725, 100%.	108
do., Class EP 725 to 730, 100%.	108
do., Class EQ 730 to 735, 100%.	108
do., Class ER 735 to 740, 100%.	108
do., Class ES 740 to 745, 100%.	108
do., Class ET 745 to 750, 100%.	108
do., Class EU 750 to 755, 100%.	108
do., Class EV 755 to 760, 100%.	108
do., Class EW 760 to 765, 100%.	108
do., Class EX 765 to 770, 100%.	108
do., Class EY 770 to 775, 100%.	108
do., Class EZ 775 to 780, 100%.	108
do., Class FA 780 to 785, 100%.	108
do., Class FB 785 to 790, 100%.	108
do., Class FC 790 to 795, 100%.	108
do., Class FD 795 to 800, 100%.	108
do., Class FE 800 to 805, 100%.	108
do., Class FF 805 to 810, 100%.	108
do., Class FG 810 to 815, 100%.	108
do., Class FH 815 to 820, 100%.	108
do., Class FI 820 to 825, 100%.	108
do., Class FJ 825 to 830, 100%.	108
do., Class FK 830 to 835, 100%.	108
do., Class FL 835 to 840, 100%.	108
do., Class FM 840 to 845, 100%.	108
do., Class FN 845 to 850, 100%.	108
do., Class FO 850 to 855, 100%.	108
do., Class FP 855 to 860, 100%.	108
do., Class FQ 860 to 865, 100%.	108
do., Class FR 865 to 870, 100%.	108
do., Class FS 870 to 875, 100%.	108
do., Class FT 875 to 880, 100%.	108
do., Class FU 880 to 885, 100%.	108
do., Class FV 885 to 890, 100%.	108
do., Class FW 890 to 895, 100%.	108
do., Class FX 895 to 900, 100%.	108
do., Class FY 900 to 905, 100%.	108
do., Class FZ 905 to 910, 100%.	108
do., Class GA 910 to 915, 100%.	108
do., Class GB 915 to 920, 100%.	108
do., Class GC 920 to 925, 100%.	108
do., Class GD 925 to 930, 100%.	108
do., Class GE 930 to 935, 100%.	108
do., Class GF 935 to 940, 100%.	108
do., Class GG 940 to 945, 100%.	108
do., Class GH 945 to 950, 100%.	108
do., Class GI 950 to 955, 100%.	108
do., Class GJ 955 to 960, 100%.	108
do., Class GK 960 to 965, 100%.	108
do., Class GL 965 to 970, 100%.	108
do., Class GM 970 to 975, 100%.	108
do., Class GN 975 to 980, 100%.	108
do., Class GO 980 to 985, 100%.	108
do., Class GP 985 to 990, 100%.	108
do., Class GQ 990 to 995, 100%.	108
do., Class GR 995 to 1000, 100%.	108
do., Class GS 1000 to 1005, 100%.	108
do., Class GT 1005 to 1010, 100%.	108
do., Class GU 1010 to 1015, 100%.	108
do., Class GV 1015 to 1020, 100%.	108
do., Class GW 1020 to 1025, 100%.	108
do., Class GX 1025 to 1030, 100%.	108
do., Class GY 1030 to 1035, 100%.	108
do., Class GZ 1035 to 1040, 100%.	108
do., Class HA 1040 to 1045, 100%.	108
do., Class HB 1045 to 1050, 100%.	108
do., Class HC 1050 to 1055, 100%.	108
do., Class HD 1055 to 1060, 100%.	108
do., Class HE 1060 to 1065, 100%.	108
do., Class HF 1065 to 1070, 100%.	108
do., Class HG 1070 to 1075, 100%.	108
do., Class HH 1075 to 1080, 100%.	108
do., Class HI 1080 to 1085, 100%.	108
do., Class HJ 1085 to 1090, 100%.	108
do., Class HK 1090 to 1095, 100%.	108
do., Class HL 1095 to 1100, 100%.	108
do., Class HM 1100 to 1105, 100%.	108
do., Class HN 1105 to 1110, 100%.	108
do., Class HO 1110 to 1115, 100%.	108
do., Class HP 1115 to 1120, 100%.	108
do., Class HQ 1120 to 1125, 100%.	108
do., Class HR 1125 to 1130, 100%.	108
do., Class HS 1130 to 1135, 100%.	108
do., Class HT 1135 to 1140, 100%.	108
do., Class HU 1140 to 1145, 100%.	108
do., Class HV 1145 to 1150, 100%.	108
do., Class HW 1150 to 1155, 100%.	108
do., Class HX 1155 to 1160, 100%.	108
do., Class HY 1160 to 1165, 100%.	108
do., Class HZ 1165 to 1170, 100%.	108
do., Class IA 1170 to 1175, 100%.	108
do., Class IB 1175 to 1180, 100%.	108
do., Class IC 1180 to 1185, 100%.	108
do., Class ID 1185 to 1190, 100%.	108
do., Class IE 1190 to 1195, 100%.	108
do., Class IF 1195 to 1200, 100%.	108
do., Class IG 1200 to 1205, 100%.	108
do., Class IH 1205 to 1210, 100%.	108
do., Class II 1210 to 1215, 100%.	108
do., Class IJ 1215 to 1220, 100%.	108
do., Class IK 1220 to 1225, 100%.	108
do., Class IL 1225 to 1230, 100%.	108
do., Class IM 1230 to 1235, 100%.	108
do., Class IN 1235 to 1240, 100%.	108
do., Class IO 1240 to 1245, 100%.	108
do., Class IP 1245 to 1250, 100%.	108
do., Class IQ 1250 to 1255, 100%.	108
do., Class IR 1255 to 1260, 100%.	108
do., Class IS 1260 to 1265, 100%.	108
do., Class IT 1265 to 1270, 100%.	108
do., Class IU 1270 to 1275, 100%.	108
do., Class IV 1275 to 1280, 100%.	108
do., Class IW 1280 to 1285, 100%.	108
do., Class IX 1285 to 1290, 100%.	108
do., Class IY 1290 to 1295, 100%.	108
do., Class IZ 1295 to 1300, 100%.	108
do., Class JA 1300 to 1305, 100%.	108
do., Class JB 1305 to 1310, 100%.	108
do., Class JC 1310 to 1315, 100%.	108
do., Class JD 1315 to 1320, 100%.	108
do., Class JE 1320 to 1325, 100%.	108
do., Class JF 1325 to 1330, 100%.	108
do., Class JG 1330 to 1335, 100%.	108
do., Class JH 1335 to 1340, 100%.	108
do., Class JI 1340 to 1345, 100%.	108
do., Class IJ 1345 to 1350, 100%.	108
do., Class JK 1350 to 1355, 100%.	108
do., Class JL 1355 to 1360, 100%.	108
do., Class JM 1360 to 1365, 100%.	108
do., Class JN 1365 to 1370, 100%.	108
do., Class JO 1370 to 1375, 100%.	108
do., Class JP 1375 to 1380, 100%.	108
do., Class JQ 1380 to 1385, 100%.	108
do., Class JR 1385 to 1390, 100%.	108
do., Class JS 1390 to 1395, 100%.	108
do., Class JT 1395 to 1400, 100%.	108
do., Class JU 1400 to 1405, 100%.	108
do., Class JV 1405 to 1410, 100%.	108
do., Class JW 1410 to 1415, 100%.	108
do., Class JX 1415 to 1420, 100%.	108
do., Class JY 1420 to 1425, 100%.	108
do., Class JZ 1425 to 1430, 100%.	108
do., Class KA 1430 to 1435, 100%.	108
do., Class KB 1435 to 1440, 100%.	108
do., Class KC 1440 to 1445, 100%.	108
do., Class KD 1445 to 1450, 100%.	108
do., Class KE 1450 to 1455, 100%.	108
do., Class KF 1455 to 1460, 100%.	108
do., Class KG 1460 to 1465, 100%.	108
do., Class KH 1465 to 1470, 100%.	108
do., Class KI 1470 to 1475, 100%.	108
do., Class KJ 1475 to 1480, 100%.	108
do., Class KK 1480 to 1485, 100%.	108
do., Class KL 1485 to 1490, 100%.	108
do., Class KM 1490 to 1495, 100%.	108
do., Class KN 1495 to 1500, 100%.	108
do., Class KO 1500 to 1505, 100%.	108
do., Class KP 1505 to 1510, 100%.	108
do., Class KQ 1510 to 1515, 100%.	108
do., Class KR 1515 to 1520, 100%.	108
do., Class KS 1520 to 1525, 100%.	108
do., Class KT 1525 to 1530, 100%.	108
do., Class KU 1530 to 1535, 100%.	108
do., Class KV 1535 to 1540, 100%.	108
do., Class KW 1540 to 1545, 100%.	108
do., Class KX 1545 to 1550, 100%.	108
do., Class KY 1550 to 1555, 100%.	108
do., Class KZ 1555 to 1560, 100%.	108
do., Class LA 1560 to 1565, 100%.	108
do., Class LB 1565 to 1570, 100%.	108
do., Class LC 1570 to 1575, 100%.	108
do., Class LD 1575 to 1580, 100%.	108
do., Class LE 1580 to 1585, 100%.	108
do., Class LF 1585 to 1590, 100%.	108
do., Class LG 1590 to 1595, 100%.	108
do., Class LH 1595 to 1600, 100%.	108
do., Class LI 1600 to 1605, 100%.	108
do., Class LJ 1605 to 1610, 100%.	108
do., Class LK 1610 to 1615, 100%.	108
do., Class LL 1615 to 1620, 100%.	108
do., Class LM 1620 to 1625, 100%.	108
do., Class LN 1625 to 1630, 100%.	108
do., Class LO 1630 to 1635, 100%.	108
do., Class LP 1635 to 1640, 100%.	108
do., Class LQ 1640 to 1645, 100%.	108
do., Class LR 1645 to 1650, 100%.	108
do., Class LS 1650 to 1655, 100%.	108
do., Class LT 1655 to 1660, 100%.	108
do., Class LU 1660 to 1665, 100%.	108
do., Class LV 1665 to 1670, 100%.	108
do., Class LW 1670 to 1675, 100%.	108</